OUR VISION:

To provide Learning and Social Support for our Community.

OUR MISSION:

The Hallam Community Learning Centre provides a place where the local community can meet, communicate and develop skills, pathways and learn in a friendly, inclusive and supportive environment.

Hallam Community Learning Centre is a not for profit, community managed organisation, run by community volunteers as our Committee of Governance, assisted by Centre Manager Tracy Van Vloten

The Centre values, aim to support the needs of the local community, providing opportunities to be involved, through learning or volunteering, to build new or utilise existing skills.

The Centre advocates and listens to ensure that the communities voice is heard and that their main interests are kept high on our agenda. Joining our Committee is a great way to be a part of the decision making process, for your local Community Centre.

We acknowledge the traditional owners of the land we are on and pay respect to the elders past, present and emerging.

We are committed to the safety, participation, and empowerment of all children regardless of abilities, age, gender, sexuality, or culture. We are committed to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children and our CALD community and have zero tolerance for child abuse.

Contact us to discuss the opportunity of using your Community Centre for your next small business, group or organisations meeting. We have various sized rooms, technology and media available to cater to your needs.
